

YOUNG ENGINEERS COMING TO TULSA

Stillwater Students Will Inspect City's Water Filtration Plant

During the month of February, stillwater students will visit Tulsa to inspect the city's water filtration plant. The students, who are studying to become civil engineers, will be accompanied by their teachers, L. C. Roberts, superintendent of Tulsa's water filtration and purification plant, and J. M. Collins, city engineer. The students will be in Tulsa for a week, during which time they will inspect the filtration plant and the city's water supply system. The students will also be given a tour of the city and will be entertained by the local youth. The students will be in Tulsa from February 1 to February 7.

NO PESSIMISM IN BANKS

End of Year Statements Demonstrate Prosperity's March. HENRYETTA, Jan. 7.—Notwithstanding the unprecedented slump in the market, due to the lack of demand in the trade territory, and the general business depression the four banks here closed the year 1921 with more than a half million dollars deposits more than the previous year of 1921. Answering the recent call for a statement at the end of business December 31, 1921, the four local banks reply with deposits as follows: First National, $1,322,689.42; Citizens, $427,510.65; Mineral National, $413,324.46; Henryetta State, $492,126.94, a total of $2,614,239.87, to which may be added the deposits of the Henryetta State, $217,000, and making a grand total of $3,131,239.87, deposits in the banks of Henryetta and suburbs to begin the year 1922.

RAPID GROWTH OF SCOUTS

Organization of County Council Gives Great Impetus. Special to The World. OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 7.—It has been announced by the scoutmaster of the Boy Scouts here that since the organization of the county council he has enrolled enough new recruits to complete his first troop and now has the second troop almost filled. He expects to have four complete troops when the spring months open up. Rev. Frank J. O'Connell, superintendent of the county council, states that there are some 200 boys in school that are eligible.

NEW YEAR BUILDING BOOM

Many Important Structures On the List of Improvements. HENRYETTA, Jan. 7.—To meet the demand for business houses, Henryetta begins the new year with contracts let for four one-story brick 25x100; two 25x120, and one 50x120 structures, and estimates asked on three 25x100, two-story, and one 50x120 three-story buildings, also on two warehouse 100x140, while the seventh lumber yard and machine shop has broken ground for buildings on a site 100x300 feet. To this may be added more than a score of modern dwellings now under course of construction, and the $70,000 church and community social center building to be erected by the Methodist congregation, work on which is to begin within the month.

Mexican City Holds Baptist Property. WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The American embassy at Mexico City has been requested to bring to the attention of the Mexican government the refusal of the municipality of Saltillo to return the property formerly possessed there by the American Baptist Missionary association. Senator Harris, democrat of Georgia, was informed in a letter he received today from Under Secretary of State Fletcher.

New Demonstrator on Duty. Special to The World. HENRYETTA, Jan. 7.—Mrs. Sarah Atwood, who succeeds Mrs. Doris Myers as home demonstration agent for this county, the latter having recently resigned, is now performing the duties of the office. ## $1,050 EXPENDED IN SWEET CHARITY

Trinity Church Aided Many Persons During the Past Year

That $1,050 was expended by the League for Social Service of Trinity Episcopal church last year in judicial aid to the needy was reported at the annual meeting of the organization Friday morning in the parish house. The aid was principally in helping people to help themselves by finding them employment and in other ways, while three needy families were removed from tents into houses and several minor operations for children were paid for. Mrs. John Carson was elected president for the year, Mrs. T. C. King secretary and Mrs. B. H. Davis treasurer. The Women's auxiliary, a missionary organization, elected as its officers, Mrs. J. R. Gilmore, president; Mrs. George Brigham, vice president; Mrs. Stuart Cameron, secretary, and Mrs. L. W. Pratt treasurer. Trinity guild chose yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Dan Hunt as president; Mrs. H. J. Johnson and Mrs. A. M. Gammon as honorary presidents; Mrs. Charles Francis as secretary; and Miss Isabel Ponda as treasurer. About fifty members of the three organizations attended a noonday luncheon in the parish house.

Wagner Reorganization Imminent. CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Prospects that E. W. Wagner and company, brokers, who were placed in the hands of a receiver several days ago, would be able to reorganize and resume business, became more certain today as the result of the receipt from New York of word that Clark Childs and company have $400,000 as assets of Wagner and company, which they are prepared to turn over to the receiver upon proper order of the court. It is expected that other houses who were correspondents of Wagner and company will make similar announcements.

TULSA GETS PICTURE FIRST

"Sea Flood" Released Here Month Before New York Sees It. Released here a full month earlier than in any other city in the United States, Tulsa audiences will be the first in the country to see the much-heralded picture "The Sea Flood." Even New York city, usually privileged to first releases, will not have the picture for at least 30 days yet.

At the Goldenwyn convention in Chicago a short time ago Ralph Talbot, owner of the Goldenwyn theater, made arrangements for the bringing of "The Sea Flood" to Tulsa. Knowledge of Talbot's success with other well known Goldenwyn pictures, and belief on Talbot's part that the picture as a drawing card would warrant the price he paid to bring it to Tulsa for first showing were responsible for the distinction Tulsa has of first showing.

Talbot, whose refusal to personally recommend any but the best pictures, said yesterday of "The Sea Flood" that it contained the most remarkable story, and was one of the best pictures that he had ever seen. James Kirkwood and Helene Chadwick are starred in the production that is to be shown at the Majestic this week, beginning today.

COMIC OPERA IS COMING
Percy Hennes Takes Leading Role in "The Impresario." MADISON, Jan. 7.—Mozart's famous comic opera, featuring Percy Hennes in the title role and assisted by an all-star cast, is to appear at Convention hall January 12. This is said to be the season's greatest feature in comic opera at a reasonable price. It is a significant fact that every voice in the company is a good one. Percy Hennes is one of America's best known concert singers.

No money, time, thought or hard work has been spared to get the results which are expected. The stage settings are superb, being equal to those accompanying grand opera. Given as it is in the English version as written by Henry Edward Krehbiel, the veteran critic of the New York Tribune, himself a composer and librettist of note, this excellent opera makes a double appeal. It is full of humorous situations, both in singing and in dialogue, but best of all is the wonderful melody and beauty of Mozart's greatest effort.

This opera was staged and all rehearsals directed by Sam Franke, the noted New York director. The fact that this company appears only once in Oklahoma should appeal to Tulsa as a rare opportunity. It is being staged here under the auspices of the Community Lyceum.

Policeman's Business to Enforce the Law

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 7.—Declaring a policeman must enforce the law "with or without responsibility," Assistant Attorney General Fulton announced this afternoon that he would institute proper proceedings against Chief of Police Dick Hightower of Ardmore in connection with alleged lax law enforcement in Custer county. He also said temporary suspension would be asked in his case.

Small's Case Continued. WAUKESHA, Ill., Jan. 7.—On motion of the defense, the case of Governor Len Small, accused of conspiracy to defraud the state, was continued until next Saturday by Judge Claire C.
